Who we are....

Healthy Living NT is the trading name of the Diabetes Association of the NT Inc., a charitable, community-based, organisation. The Association was formed in 1980 by a group of people with diabetes who believed they could each benefit by exchanging information and experiences.

Milestones in our development include:

- The introduction of the National Diabetes Service Scheme (NDSS) in 1987.
- The establishment of the Diabetes Education and Resource Centre in Darwin in 1989.
- The opening of our Alice Springs office in 1993.
- The commencement of cardiac rehabilitation services in 2002.
- The delivery of extensive remote diabetes and cardiac education services since 2010.

Healthy Living NT is proud of its achievements since incorporation in 1980, proud of our dedicated staff and our significant contribution to the health and well-being of Territorians. We gratefully acknowledge the input of many volunteers.

Healthy Living NT works closely with diabetes organisations throughout Australia towards common goals, especially with diabetes organisation in each state and territory.
